Saša Zgorelec

With his degree in mechanical engineering, extensive background in charter operations, maintenance in all aspects, land-based operations, and 10 years of experience as a captain and engineer in the yachting industry, it's enough to say that you're in safe hands. A combination of his adaptability, problem-solving attitude, and client-oriented approach makes for an enjoyable and seamless charter experience. Freedom of movement, diversity of places, and culture drive Sasha and he enjoys sharing it with guests.
